

BY THE LORDS JUSTICES
General and General Governors
OF IRELAND,
A PROCLAMATION.

Winchester, Gallway.

WHEREAS Debentures have been Issued to the Commission-Officers of the several Regiments of Foot lately Disbanded in this Kingdom by His Majesty's Order, for Their fourth parts of the Arrears due to them (they having Received One fourth part upon their being Disbanded.) And, Whereas by Our Proclamation Dated the Twelfth Day of July last, Notice was given, That We had Directed the Receivers and Paymasters-General of His Majesty's Revenue in this Kingdom to Issue and Pay unto the several Commanding Officers of the said Regiments, One fourth part more of their Arrears, being One third part of the Debentures Issued to them; the same to be paid to the Agents of the said Regiments, for the respective Officers or their Assigns. And We having now given further Directions to the Receivers and Paymasters-General, to Issue and Pay to the several Disbanded Officers of the Regiments aforesaid, one Fourth part more of their Arrears, which will make up two Third parts of the Money due to them upon their Debentures, and to be Paid to the respective Officers, or their Assigns, We do think fit to make the same known by this Our Proclamation: And to the end all Persons herein concerned may have Notice hereof, We require the Sheriffs of the several Counties, Cities, and County Towns in this Kingdom, upon Receipt hereof, to Publish and Affix the same within their respective Counties and Liberties, as in like Cases is usual.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 7th day of October, 1698. In the Tenth year of His Majesty's Reign.

By Their Excellencies Command.
H. May.

GOD Save the KING.

DUBLIN, Printed by Andrew Crook, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, on Cork-Hill, near Copper-Alley, 1698.

